1 Substitute the solution for $G^{(2)}$ (eq. 159.3 of the lecture notes) in the CS equation and show that it is actually a solution. (There are a few tips for how to do this in Peskin, page 420, starting at eq. 12.74)